Announcement of regular elections into the Board of Researchers
of the Faculty of Applied Sciences (FAV)
of the University of West Bohemia in Plzeň

Pursuant to the 9D / 2020 Decree, the Board of Researchers of the FAV, represented by an authorized person, is announcing regular elections into the Board of Researchers of the FAV

The general time for the regular elections has been set by the authorized person for the week of November 2 - 8, 2020. The specific date of the regular elections shall be determined by the electoral commission.

Any Scientific and Research Staff member of the FAV can submit a proposal for a candidate in writing through any member of the election commission for the attention of the chairman of the election commission from September 29, 2020 to October 23, 2020. The proposal must contain the first name, last name and date of birth, personal number and place of work of the candidate. The proposal must also include the written consent of the candidate to the proposal. Candidate proposal forms and other information on elections are available on the FAV website.

In Pilsen, September 29, 2020

Ondřej Severa Authorized person of the Board of Researchers FAV